Searching Standards for Federal Courts:

District Courts index by defendant, plaintiff, and by case number. Bankruptcy Courts usually index by debtor and case number. Most case files created prior to 1999 were maintained in paper format only. Since 2006, all cases are filed electronically. Paper case files may be stored at the courthouse or forwarded to a designated Federal Records Center (see <http://archives.gov/frc>), the timeframe determined by the Court. These case files may be obtained via the Court or directly from the FRC.

Case data may be viewed PACER, the online public access program. An account is required, the fee is $.10 per page; there is no fee if a usage does not exceed $15.00 in a quarter. For details about PACER see the Appendix or go to <https://www.pacer.gov> or call 800-676-6856.

The copy fee is $.50; $.10 if electronic document is printed from terminal. Certification fee is $11.00 per document and $21.00 for exemplification, if available. If a case is still available from the individual federal court, the search fee is $30.00. If the case is at the Archives, the case can be ordered from the court. The fee to retrieve a paper file is $64.00 for the first box and $39.00 ea add'l box. Also, the public can order copies direct online from the National Archives. Copies can be delivered by mail, fax, or email. See more information, including fees, at www.archives.gov/research/court-records/55.

The Supreme and Appellate Courts

The Supreme Court is the court of last resort. The Court of Appeals hears all appeals from orders of the State Corporation Commission and all appeals from the District Courts in both civil and criminal cases except those which may be appealed directly to the Supreme Court. It also has jurisdiction over original actions in habeas corpus.

Published opinions and case information from the Appellate Courts and Supreme Court are available at www.kscourts.org.

Courts and Jurisdictions

Details on the Court Structure

The District Court is the court of general jurisdiction, with general original jurisdiction over all civil and criminal cases, including divorce and domestic relations, damage suits, probate and administration of estates, guardianships, conservatorships, care of the mentally ill, juvenile matters, and small claims.

Municipal Courts deal with city ordinances; cases usually involve traffic and other minor offenses. If an individual in Municipal Court wants a jury trial, the request must be filed de novo in a District Court. Marriage and divorce records are with the Clerk of the District Court where the action occurred as well as at the state vital records agency.

Record Searching Facts You Need to Know

Fees and Record Searching Tips

Five counties - Cowley, Crawford, Labette, Montgomery, and Neosho - have two hearing locations but only one record center, which is the location shown herein.

The Kansas Legislature's Administrative Order 156 (Fall, 2000) allows courts to charge up to $12.00 per hour for search services. Approximately 70% of the courts follow that schedule. Many Kansas courts do not provide criminal record name searches and refer requesters to the Kansas Bureau of Investigation.

Viewing the criminal docket index will not necessarily show the full DOB. Many counties have redacted the day and month of birth in records after 2005.

Online Access is Statewide

Commercial online access for civil, criminal, and traffic records is available for District Court records from the state's judicial system managed by Kansas.gov. Note that Sedgwick County cases prior to 2003 and Wyandotte County Cases prior to July 2004 are not available on the system and there are certain limitations with Johnson County (see below). See <https://www.kansas.gov/countyCourts/courtDates.gsp> for a list of start dates when new filings were entered for each county.

Record searching is offered to the general public and a subscription account is also available. The fee is $1.00 per search, per county, PLUS $1.00 per case retrieved for view. Users may perform a name search of multiple counties. A credit card is required for payment, unless the requester has a subscription. Subscribers pay an annual $95 subscription fee and receive monthly billing. Interestingly, Johnson County records are available only to subscribers—if a requester uses the public site (and pays with a credit card) Johnson County records are NOT available.

This system is generally considered to be equivalent to an initial onsite visit using the public access terminal; however few counties go back further than 10- or 11-years on the online system. The onsite terminals can go back further plus generally give the ability to search sentencing information - which is not found online.

As mentioned above, the DOB is not generally shown on records (most counties have also removed the DOB on the docket index on the onsite terminals as well). The case number is given. Case file images are not displayed; they must be reviewed at the courthouse.

Subscribers have access to other records such as the state criminal record repository and motor vehicle records (if qualified.) For additional information or a registration packet, telephone 800-452-6727 or visit the web page at <https://www.accesskansas.org/countyCourts/>.

Kansas Recording Offices

Organization: 105 counties, 105 recording offices. The recording officer is the Register of Deeds. Many counties utilize a "Miscellaneous Index" for tax and other liens, separate from real estate records. 101 Kansas counties are in the Central Time Zone (CST) and 4 counties - Greeley, Hamilton, Sherman, Wallace - in Mountain Time Zone (MST).

What is Recorded The various documents recorded by this office include deeds, mortgages, easements, surveys, death certificates, oil & gas leases, assignments and releases, tax liens, UCCs and military discharges.

Recording methods vary throughout the state. Some counties make only "paper" copies as the permanent record, other counties microfilm, and some "image".

Searching Real Estate Records The state mandated fee for a written information request is $15.00 per debtor name. Most courts follow this fee schedule if the county performs name searches. However, most counties will not perform real estate searches although some will do as an accommodation with the understanding the results are not "certified searches." Some counties will also do a search to determine owner based upon legal description. Copy fees vary; usually $1.00 in half the counties, less in others. Certification fee usually $1.00 per document. Tax records located at the Appraiser's Office.

Searching Tax Lien And UCC Records: Federal tax liens on personal property of businesses are filed with the Secretary of State. Other federal tax liens and all state tax liens on personal property are filed with the county Register of Deeds. Most counties automatically include tax liens on personal property with a UCC search. Tax liens on personal property may sometimes be searched separately for $8.00 per name, depending on the county.

Financing statements are filed at the state level except for real estate related collateral which are filed with the Register of Deeds. Most counties will perform UCC searches. UCC search fee at the county level is usually $15.00 per debtor name. UCC copies are usually $1. per page.

Online Access: A limited number of counties provide online access to recorder records. About 60 counties provide online access to property tax records.

There is no statewide system to either recorded documents or tax assessor records.
